

Living well with dementia - commissioning services

Claire Goodchild

Better Commissioning

Department of Health, Policy Implementation Support

This presentation . . .

- Services to be commissioned
- The role of the commissioner
- The commissioning cycle
- Commissioning for outcomes
- Further support

What is being commissioned? Recommended and universal services

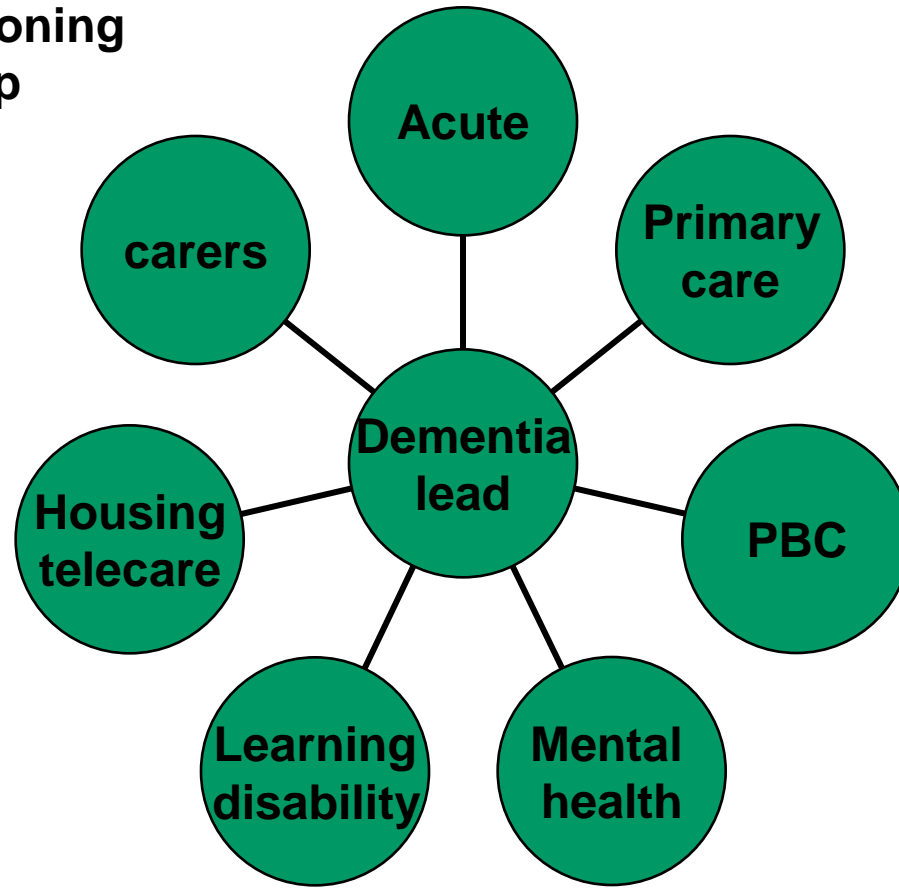

- Objective 1: Improved public and professional awareness and understanding of dementia
- Objective 2: Good quality early diagnosis and intervention for all
- Objective 3: Good quality information for those diagnosed with dementia and their carers
- Objective 4: Easy access to care, support and advice following diagnosis facilitated by a dementia advisor
- Objective 5: Structured peer support and learning networks
- Objective 6: Community personal support services
- Objective 7: Services within the carers strategy

What is being commissioned? Recommended and universal services

- Objective 8: Good quality care within general hospitals
- Objective 9: Intermediate care for people with dementia
- Objective 10: Good housing, housing-related and telecare support
- Objective 11: High quality services within care homes
- Objective 12: Good end of life care
- Objective 13 : An informed and effective workforce across all services

Who's doing the commissioning? Commission, coordinate, influence

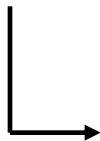

Commissioning Leadership

Commissioning for outcomes

Work with people with dementia and carers to define
'good' outcomes

Work with providers to agree outcome measures
Dignity
Safeguarding

Embed outcomes in contracts
- Include incentives

Introduction

Coming up

Commissioning implementation support

Early implementer sites
Evidence of effectiveness
Financial metrics

Joint Commissioning Framework
Commissioning levers
JSNA template
Outcomes and measurement
NICE and SCIE evidence

Resources

Practical steps in commissioning dementia service

-Soon to be published!

Everybody's Business commissioning resource

<http://networks.csip.org.uk/BetterCommissioning/Commissioningforcaregroups/Olderpeopleservices/>

Better Commissioning website

<http://networks.csip.org.uk/betterCommissioning/>

National Dementia Strategy Joint Commissioning Framework

- Publication end March 2009